The second novel in USA Today bestselling author Penelope Bloom's Anyone But... series turns up the heat and hilarity with a story about second chances and promises worth breaking.

After Cade King cost me everything, I vowed I'd never fall for him again - even if he became rich and megafamous.

Go figure.

Now Cade is back with his billion-dollar company...and his ability to radiate attraction like a tempting Wi-Fi hotspot. Not to mention his tendency to have worse impulse control than a chimpanzee.

I'd be lying if I said I didn't enjoy it a little when I arrested him for disorderly conduct. Unfortunately, I think Cade liked it a little too. So when he asks for my help, I know exactly what I should say. But something's fried the circuits in my brain. It doesn't help that I can practically feel my ovaries humming to life just from standing within fifty yards of him.

The bastard.

Still, Cade doesn't know the first thing about commitment. He lives completely in the moment. I'd need to have a recurring case of amnesia to believe he could change. I guess only time will tell which one of us is the real fool in the end.
