What's a vampire to do to liven things up? Mike is handsome, muscular, and looks 23. Unfortunately, almost 40 years as one of the undead have left him solitary and bored. Delivering pizza gives him something to do and provides a safe source of prey, coordinated with a wink by the vampire owner of the pizzeria. One night his un-life changes when he delivers to the gorgeous Susan and falls hard for her. What was supposed to be a vampire/victim relationship becomes a passionate encounter. Then things twist even further when Mike realizes Susan is very far from what he expected. Just who is using who, and how will the long night end? This straight adult tale contains sex, mild bondage, vampire blood lust, and an exchange of bodily fluids.
