Welcome to the Mirror Talks Podcast with Bentinho Massaro where we deconstruct some of humanity's most disconnecting and limiting assumptions and offer an alternative: a free state of consciousness—unbiased, naturally wise, and genuinely loving. We will shed a more enlightened perspective on everyday experiences to help anyone willing realize their true potential and inspire a contemporary spiritual life lived in service to all. Say goodbye to the man-made paradigms of distorted ideas. Let's become pure, free, and actually intelligent once again.
