Medical humiliation from both sides!
Dr. Pete Fournier is having one of those daysâ€”bored out of his mind working an extra-long shift at a critically understaffed urgent care center.
Until he walks into Exam Room #6 and finds his son Eric and daughter-in-law Jill there. Also on hand is one of Peteâ€™s neighbors, police sergeant Sean Driscoll. Pete learns that, while out running, Jill was bitten by an unleashed dog belonging to one of the neighborsâ€”
On her bottom.
Well, Peteâ€™s day has just gotten a whole lot more interesting! Jill might be shy and modest, but sheâ€™s also beautiful and very well-built. And gosh darn it, Pete, for all his medical experience, just canâ€™t stop himself from being very turned on by the prospect of examining Jillâ€™s, er, injury.
But itâ€™s not just Jillâ€™s well-roundedness that has him all fired up; itâ€™s the fact that Jill is understandably embarrassed to the nth degree having her father-in-lawâ€”the only physician on dutyâ€”assigned to her case. And Pete happens to find a humiliated woman to be even sexier!
And in addition to Jill needing to get her clothes off for him, Pete is also thrilled by the arrival of eight medical students brought in to observe Jillâ€™s examination and treatment. Now, her humiliation is multipliedâ€”and, thus, her ability to drive Pete crazy!
As well as he should be. After all, Jill is not only about to be hideously exposed before all these people, but, thanks to the dubious suggestions of Greg Alum, one of the students, her exam is about to go from awkward and unpleasantâ€”to lewd and debasing.
And thanks to Sgt. Driscollâ€™s need for pictures (for, er, court purposes) Jill must also pose in ways that would make a Playboy bunny blush.
Talk about embarrassment! Talk about the thrill of a lifetime for our less-than-ethical doctor!
And for Jill, this ordeal couldnâ€™t possibly be any more humiliatingâ€”especially when she discovers that Gregâ€”the dirty-minded studentâ€”had been a boy she used to babysit for! Why, even if he werenâ€™t a sleazy opportunist, this would nonetheless be the stuff of Jillâ€™s worst nightmare!

Fans of ENF, CMNF, submissive female, medical humiliation and gyno erotica, this story is for you!

From J.C.: This is Book #13 in my â€œMedical Humiliation to the Hiltâ€ series! I just love putting beautiful, modest women in the most unbelievably embarrassing and degrading situations imaginable! I think we can all agree: A shivering, reluctant, red-faced female, lying in a johnny (or less), legs spread wide for a man who, for one reason or another, really shouldnâ€™t be there, is pretty damned sexy!

And if that woman also happens to find herself in a situation that ratchets up her shivers, reluctance, and humiliation to the hilt, then weâ€™re moving from sexy to mind-blowing!

But thereâ€™s much more!

Each story in this series is actually TWO STORIES IN ONE! First, youâ€™ll read it from the womanâ€™s point of view. Youâ€™ll feel her embarrassment, reluctance, vulnerability, and shame first-hand as she submits to whatever form of humiliation our â€œheroâ€ has in store for her.

Then, youâ€™ll have the opportunity to turn the tables and read the very same story, told through the eyes of the unscrupulous man who is more than happy to put a red face on his victimâ€™erâ€™ â€œpatient.â€ See what itâ€™s like for him to have this unbelievably golden opportunity to â€œtake advantageâ€ of said beautiful and shaky woman and enjoy her trembling charms in situations that very few men could ever hope to experience! Feel his sense of power and domination as he subjects her to a delicious buffet of unpleasantness!

Either way, the clothes will reluctantly come off, the fun will begin, and you will enjoy this fun from both sides!
