From USA Today bestselling author Aliyah Burke comes a playfully sexy romantic comedy about one room, one bed, and a man who knows how to play . . .

When ex-pro basketball player Mitchell Anderson sees an overturned car on the edge of a cliff during a nasty snowstorm, he knows he has only minutes to rescue the woman trapped inside. What he's not expecting is their instant attraction, or that she can deliver one hell of a pick-up line even under the most terrifying of circumstances.

Hope Roman's entire life is on the edge. She's already overwhelmed with grief and upset, and nearly dying is pretty much the icing on a terrible, soggy cake. So it's just her luck that she's suddenly snowbound at a charming little inn with the hottest, yet down right grumpiest, man she's ever met. And naturally, there's only one room left.

Now the pillow barrier between them keeps disappearing. And the walls are coming down. But Hope knows she doesn't belong in Mitchell's world any more than he belongs in hers. The question is whether either of them can trust the other long enough to play for keeps . . .
