After ten best-selling thrillers, Diane and David Munson launch North by Starlight, their first romantic suspense with attorney Madison Stone racing to Starlight, Vermont, from her D.C. law firm to save the inheritance of Jordan Star, sole heir of his late grandfatherâ€™s Star Mountain ski resort. Maddie arrives in the winter wonderland ready to defeat the claim of Jordanâ€™s mystery relative. Instead, she finds surprising struggles and diversions in the idyllic town during the Christmas season when her ex-boyfriend, attorney Stewart Dunham, shows up to represent the interloper. Maddie sharpens her legal skills in outwitting him and a greedy mining enterprise bent on changing Starlight forever. She and Jordan form an alliance, and the ensuing legal battle leaves her emotionally vulnerable until Trevor Kirk, a geologist, focuses her mind back to what is important, saving the town and finding her heart.
