

Presenting with Super Confidence

author: Ana Maria Gonzales

2026-06

Synopsis

authoriř	Ana Maria Gonzales
readByiř	C.D. Gabbard
inLanguageiř	english

After decades of giving and viewing presentations in large multinational organizations, in many countries and cultures, Ana Maria Gonzales has seen it all, both good and bad!

Ana Maria will guide you on how to avoid the well-known and not-so-well-known pitfalls.

After some practice, you will become well-versed at giving powerful, persuasive, and compelling presentations.

Most people absolutely dread public speaking; you will learn the tips and tricks he found that helped him throughout his career!

Imagine yourself out in front of a room full of prospective clients or selling your product or service to a major international organization. Are you scared? Well, this audiobook is undoubtedly for you. Ana Maria will guide you effortlessly through the minefield that is public speaking and presenting.

Ana Maria Gonzales has been engaged by large international companies for over 30 years and gives you the strategies to deliver impactful presentations to any organization - both big or small.

Ensure you're ahead of the curve with this essential information.

You will discover:

- The best piece of advice before you even get in the room!
- How to deliver humor
- What to do when technology fails
- The best ways to engage with your audience in a compelling way
- How to convert anxiety into positive energy
- How to gain rapport quickly
- Why culture counts
- The three-by-three rule
- Why timing matters - is less more?
- How to deliver a call to action effectively

Just imagine, always presenting with confidence!

Seize this opportunity and listen to this book....

Reader's comments

comment 1:

â€"â€" ()