You know that voice in your head that tells you something is a bad idea, but you do it anyways? Do you find yourself wondering why you didn't listen to it in the first place? What if that voice in your head isn't who or what you think it is?  Garrett is just an average who is trying to make his big score, when a meeting with his girlfriend goes horribly wrong and results in his death. Garrett is given the chance to re-examine his life with the "Judge". Nothing in his life is what is seems, and Garrett hopes he may of found a way to save his life even after his own death.
