What is it like to be sexually possessed and controlled by a dominant woman? Jessie is the husband of Angie, a successful Manhattan businesswoman who is especially fond of masturbating him whenever she wants, to play with his body as she pleases. Her erotic torments and Jessie's sexual servitude enable them to live a female-led lifestyle. However, the world is full of jealous people. When a challenge to their femdom marriage arises, Angie and Jessie are tested. Will their erotically-charged relationship be strong enough to withstand the threat?

This sexually-explicit "subbie hubbie" novella includes exciting, erotic BDSM femdom activities including: cock and ball torture (cbt); anal strap-on sex; oral service; a threesome with another woman; nipple torture; bondage; female-dominant sex and blow job; forced masturbation; Clothed Female Naked Male (CFNM); younger man older woman; Arborene's first-ever female-on-female domination scene; voyeurism; a very imaginative use of a foot massage salon to torment Jessie; face-sitting; face slapping; and many moments of an erotic female-led marriage, with the man serving his wife's needs.

Adults Only. Must Be Over 18. This femdom fiction novella follows in the footsteps of Ariane Arborene's popular novella, The Well-Disciplined Husband. While Arborene has forged a reputation for uncompromising BDSM female domination fiction, this novella depicts a more mainstream erotic domination in a committed relationship of shared erotic lives.

This story is for all lovers of high-quality erotica. This is a fully-developed portrait of a female-led, sexual marriage. If scenes of female S&M domination within the context of a loving relationship turn you on, this novella is for you!

The Masturbator Wife will also have a special appeal for anyone interested in younger man/older woman erotica, for Jessie is a younger man who passionately desires his wife in a way that society would not necessarily understand.

Ariane Arborene has been publishing erotic fetish fiction since 2010. This is her third novella, following The Well-Disciplined Husband and Submitting to Alexis: Artist in Training. Arborene is perhaps best known for her three collections of original femdom erotica, Classic FemDom Stories.
