

The Mysterious Death of Rebecca Zahau

author:

2026-06

Synopsis

Rebecca Zahau was found hanging outside the Speckles Mansion on Coronado Island, California. She was naked, bound, and gagged, and there was a disturbing message written on the wall, which to most lay people immediately looked suspicious. But police were quick to categorize this death as a suicide. This was especially odd, since just 2 days later there had been another death in the mansion - that of 6 year old Max Shacknai, which had happened under Rebecca's supervision. Was this a case of grief leading to a suicide? Or was Rebecca actually murdered, and if so, by whom? Sources: Articles Town & Country | The Mysterious Deaths That Rocked a Wealthy Southern California Enclave (Sean Elder) Documentaries Oxygen | Death at the Mansion Investigation Discovery| Zahau: An ID Murder Mystery Support the show (<https://www.patreon.com/truecrimecreepers>) Learn more about your ad choices. Visit megaphone.fm/adchoices

Reader's comments

comment 1:

â€"â€" ()