A young innocent woman on holiday explores a local town, and finds herself on a remote beach, with only two sexy builders for company. Realizing she's run out of water, they help her out, and then suggest she joins them for a swim in the ocean to cool off. Problem is, she doesn't have a swimming costume - though she is rather hot and bothered, so maybe it doesn't matter. Things get heated in the warm sea, and she finds herself sandwiched between the two horny guys.
