A romantic-comedy lover lives out a holiday experience that could rival those of her favorite movies when she meets a handsome stranger on New Year's Eve.

She knows just what she's doing New Year's Eve. And it doesn't include locking lips with anyone. After a few years of holiday heartbreak, Natalie is determined to get through this holiday season in one piece. But when a potential love interest from her past reappears, she's torn between letting love in again or protecting her heart.

Before Natalie can pop the cork and toast to her future happiness, she'll have to face the pesky ghosts from her holidays past or risk losing out on her happily ever after.

From the award-winning author of The Marrying Type and Playing House, What Happens at Midnight is romantic women's fiction full of laugh-out-loud humor, holiday spirit, and proof that true love can conquer all.
