A Firehawks Smokejumpers romance.

Krista Thorson, number-two smokejumper with Mount Hood Aviationâ€™s elite team, parachutes into wildfires for a living. Too tall, too big, too strong, she never fit in...except on the fireline. Her past lost, her future uncertain, Krista fights for the present.

Special Forces veteran Evan Greene jumps fire to avoid facing his past. Some memories are too painful. Evanâ€™s policy? Bury and move on.... Until Krista unearths what he most wants to forget.

No half-measures win this firefight. Together, they must face their pasts before their love burns away in the wildfire on the Skagit.
